Norwich Students visit VT Radio & TV Stations

Every October, WNUB-FM Adviser Doug Smith takes his new students to visit and tour radio and television stations, giving them an introductory taste of real world broadcasting.

This year, these next generation of broadcasters visited VT Public Radio, Hall Communications and WCAX-TV, where they were all encouraged to consider internships!

If you would like to have students from any Vermont college intern at your station, email vab@vab.org
