Spotlight on 2 Millennial Broadcasters!

Kassy Lawrence

Traffic Coordinator & Office Manager
Eagle Country 97.5

Prior to joining WTNN, Kassy went to Johnson & Wales University in Providence, RI and was a Project Coordinator for a local roofing and siding company. She has

Josh Marshall

Promotions Director
The Point Radio Network

Josh began his foray into radio at his high school's station WBMT. He then went off to Hamilton College where he joined WHCL as a DJ. After graduating, he spent time always listened to country music and jumped at the opportunity to be in radio because she knew she would enjoy coming to work everyday and be proud to tell people what she does for a living! Kassy says, "Radio has slowly cemented a spot in my heart and I think this is going to be my career for the long run!" During her free time, Kassy loves to paint and takes commissions for custom pet portraits! She resides in Vergennes with her fiance Corey and her shepherd cattle mix named Duncan who comes to work with her almost every day!

working in publishing and public relations, in addition to doing promotions for the Boston Globe's Radio BDC, now known as indie 617. More recently, he cut his teeth as a promotions coordinator for WXRV in Massachusetts, before joining WNCS, The Point as their new Promotions Director. An accomplished saxophone player with a life-long obsession for all things audio, Josh is overjoyed to be involved in Vermont's music scene. You may see him behind the wheel of The Point's London Taxi or on the hunt for a great live performance in Montpelier, Burlington, and beyond!

WVTK Raises $5,500 For Homeward Bound!

Bruce & Hobbes 24 Hour Radiothon for Addison County's Humane Society

Congratulations to Bruce Zeman and his canine co-host Hobbes for raising $5,500 for Homeward Bound, Addison County's Humane Society, during their 4th Annual "Bruce & Hobbes' Ca$h for Paws" radiothon on 92.1 WVTK-FM in Middlebury!

September 19th from 12:01am-11:59pm, Bruce & Hobbes stayed LIVE for 24 hours and offered to play ANY song requested by a listener for a $10 donation to the shelter. 110+ people donated, including VT Governor Phil Scott, and helped them beat their goal and raise $5,500!

With the "2019 Ca$h for Paws" Radiothon in the books, including this year's total, Bruce & Hobbes have raised over $55,000 for Homeward Bound!
