

In This Issue:

- Dana Jewell Retires
- Jeff Morad promoted to WEQX Operations Manager
- Dave Goddette promoted to VP/Director of Sales for VOX AM/FM
- John Mullett promoted to VP Operations/ Station Manger for VOX AM/FM

Radio Personality Dana Jewell Retires

Friday, September 18th, Dana Jewell retired from WDEV AM & FM in Waterbury. He has been in Vermont radio on and off close to 40 years.

In 1980, Jewell was hired at WSYB in Rutland for evenings. His radio career has included stints with WEZF, WDOT, WVMT and WEXP as well as Hall Communications. Jewell worked at WDEV from 2001-2008 and then returned in March of 2018.

The VAB wishes Dana well in his retirement!

Jeff Morad Promoted to WEQX Operations Manager

Longtime Program Director, Morning Show host, and host of the Jam N' Toast specialty show, adds Operations Manager to his duties at heritage Alternative station, WEQX.

"It is with great pleasure to announce that Mr. Morad has accepted the position of Operations Manager," said EQX General Manager, Mimi Brown. "Jeff is the hardest working human I have ever met, and has been my right hand since he accepted the PD position."

"To be honest, when Mimi told me she was bestowing the title of OM on me, I humbly accepted and immediately snuck away to google what the heck OM meant haha," said Jeff Morad.

"I came to find out this would be a smooth transition from my current position as PD to OM/PD because the amazing staff at EQX already operates as a well-oiled machine. From Mimi herself as GM to Keller as Production Director, Luke as Music Director and Nicki in Sales...all operations at EQX are very manageable."

Dave Godette Promoted to VP of Sales/Director of Sales for VOX AM/FM

Dave Goddette, a 20 year veteran with VOX AM/FM and current Sales Manager for Star 92.9, 101.3 The Game, 960 The Zone and 92.1 WVTK, assumes the title and responsibilities of VP Sales/Director of Sales for the cluster.

He will oversee all aspects of revenue generation and sales personnel for all of the stations in the cluster.

Godette also serves as Secretary of the VAB Board and is Chair of the Membership Committee.

John Mullett Promoted to VP of Operations/Station Manager for VOX AM/FM

John Mullett, a Vermont native and the current Ops Manager, is promoted to the VP Operations/Station Manager position. He will oversee all programming, promotion, technical and business functions for the entire cluster.

Barlow said "We're pleased that two such longtime and talented broadcasters can be promoted from within. They will make a terrific team to bring Vox AM/FM to a whole new level. Everyone in our building is excited about these changes!"

Barlow also announced that Kacie Loeffler will become the new Sales Manager for the Star 92.9/101.3 The Game/105.9-960 The Zone/96.7 MeTVfm sales team and longtime sales veteran Bruce Parmenter has moved to the Star 92.9 sales team. VOX also welcomes Melissa Rozestraten to the 95 Triple X sales team.

